

Please do not do anything to weaken Indiana's law. I used to receive many of the sales calls, etc., now I receive very few. They always came during dinner hour and were very disturbing. We are very satisfied with Indiana law and do not want it to be watered down by the federal law.